

Don't worry about anything, but in all your prayers ask God for what you need, always asking him with a thankful heart.

And God's peace, which is far beyond human understanding, will keep your hearts and minds safe in union with Christ Jesus.

Philippians 4:6-7

No one can serve two masters. He will either hate one and love the other or be devoted to one and despise the other.

Matthew 6:24

As each one has received a gift, use it to serve one another as good stewards of God's varied grace.

1 Peter 4:8-10

"Honor the Lord with your wealth, with first fruits of all you produce; then will your barns be filled with grain, with new wine your vats will overflow."

Proverbs 3:9

Moreover, God is able to make every grace abundant for you, so that in all things, always having all you need, you may have an abundance for every good work.

2 Corinthians 9:8

Each must do as already determined, without sadness or compulsion, for God loves a cheerful giver.

Corinthians 9:6-8

And keep in mind the words of the Lord Jesus who himself said, "It is more blessed to give than to receive."

Acts 20:35

For where your treasure is, there also will your heart be. Much will be required of the person entrusted with much.

Luke 12:34 & 48

"Whoever wishes to be great among you will be your servant; Whoever wishes to be first among you, will be the slave of all."

Mark 10:43-45

If a brother or sister has nothing to wear and no food for the day and you do not give them the necessities of life, what good is it?

James 2:14-17
